Dear colleagues,

Call for Papers – NOW OPEN

The ANZESG is hosting its next New Zealand-based meeting on 14 February, 2025. The submission deadline for papers is Friday 20 November 2024, for full papers, if available or extended abstracts. Please make submissions to the following email address: john.mcdermott@motu.org.nz.

Subject to acceptance, which we will advise by Wednesday, 27 November 2024, full papers will be required by Wednesday, 22 January 2025, so they can be made available to discussants.

The conference registration fee is NZD$125, for which we will provide the details for payment by direct credit. The fee covers morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea, and the meeting dinner. Note that registrations for attendance only are also welcome.

We will present awards to young/emerging econometricians based on their research and presentation at the meeting. To qualify for an award, researchers should either work towards a PhD or complete doctoral research within the past two years. Please let us know when you submit whether you want to be considered for these awards.

Please circulate this email and the flyer attached to anyone in your department or institution interested in attending the meeting or being added to our mailing list. The information is also available on the meeting webpage at:
